Mother/Daughter Team Takes the Cake at Midwest Bakery Show

Battle Lake, MN, March 17, 2009 – Bev’s Bakery, a provider of specialty cakes, breads, and pastries in Battle Lake, Minnesota recently received strong affirmation for its tasty desserts. Janet Schicker, owner of the bakery, and her daughter Chandra showcased several specialty cakes at the Upper Midwest Bakery Association Show and came home with two gold and two silver awards.

The show was held on February 29-March 1 in Minneapolis and showcased regional bakers’ best desserts. Schicker and her daughter entered the competition with Fondant Novelty Cakes – winning gold and silver medals in that category. This marks the third consecutive year the small town bakery has earned high honors at the show.

Janet and Chandra were the only mother/daughter entry in the competition. “The bakery is named after my mom, and now with my daughter graduating from culinary school, it’s truly a family affair!” says Schicker.

Bev’s Bakery is a popular venue for residents, tourists, golfers, and fishermen on their way to the lakes area and will reopen for the summer in late May.
